Dearest Mayor Mila Ting-Que:

Warmest greetings!

Please be informed that some of our member-stallholders at Tuguegarao City Commercial Center (TCCC), some stakeholders at Don Domingo Public Market and at Peoples Gym have still unpaid monthly rental and remained outstanding as of December 31, 2023 having failed to avail for the period of the amnesty program.

In view thereof, we are attaching herewith PETITION letter request for an extension of the amnesty program until the end of June 2024 and waiver of penalties and surcharges as business has not yet significantly improved since the prolonged adverse effect of the covid 19 pandemic.

Hoping for your usual kind support.

Thank you.

PETITION

Warmest greetings in the name of the Lord!

We the undersigned members of Metro Tuguegarao Multi-Purpose Cooperative (MTMPC) and together with other stakeholders at Tuguegarao City Commercial Center, Don Domingo Public Market and at People's gym, we come once more to solicit your kind support for a new grant of amnesty program for the unpaid penalties and charges incurred on our past due monthly rent which have accumulated and remained outstanding after the period of the amnesty last June 2023.

While most of stakeholders are engaged in retail of non-essential goods and commodities, the prolonged covid 19 pandemic have slowed down our business recovery, hence, this request for a new grant of amnesty for the period January 2024 until June 30, 2024 as we are more hopeful now with the business prospect for 2024.

In view thereof, may we request for your kind support and assistance for a grant of amnesty on penalties and charges that remained unpaid and outstanding since December 31, 2023.

Thank you.

Very truly yours,
